Retired Credit Union Executive to Consult for HRx and KNOWMORE

(Tallahassee, FL) -The FCUL Service Group, Inc., the service corporation for the Florida Credit Union League, hired Ken Spence, former Senior Vice President of Human Resources, for Suncoast Schools Federal Credit Union, as an independent consultant for HRx, human resources division, and KNOWMORE, the League's education department. Mr. Spence will be working with credit unions to grow their human capital through performance analysis and management.

Mr. Spence spent 24 years at Suncoast School Federal Credit Union in a senior human resources position, responsible for all human resources programs, including training. Suncoast Schools FCU, at $4.8 billion, is the largest credit union in the State of Florida and the 8th largest federal credit union in the United States. He has a degree in Business and has been an active member of the Society of Human Resources Management since 1971, and was one of the first members of the CUNA HR/Training & Development Council.

For more information on identifying performance improvement opportunities in your credit union, contact Ken Spence at 813-503-5370 or e-mail ken.spence@HRx.net.
