B. J. VONIER, FCUL CREDIT CARD SUPERVISOR, DIES IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Tallahassee—B. J. Vonier, the supervisor of the FCUL Service Group's Credit Card Program, was killed last night in a single car accident in rural Leon County. Ms. Vonier had worked with FCUL since March, 1998.

FCUL's Credit Card Program will be closed on Thursday, February 24, according to Keith Hopkins, Vice President of Business Development. Hopkins said that the department would re-open on Friday, February 25.

"This is a tragic, tragic event," said Hopkins. "We're all devastated by this."
